Principal's Message

It was great seeing so many families at our Fall Festival. A huge thank you goes to our PTSA for putting the food and activities together and to all of the volunteers that helped to make this event a huge success!

We are fortunate to have author Matthew Gollub visit us Nov. 17. He will be meeting with K-3 grade students in the morning and will be meeting with parents that evening (6:00 pm) to autograph books. Our school has purchased his book, Give the Gift! 10 Fulfilling Ways to Raise a Lifetime Reader. The book will be free to our parents on a first come, first serve basis. Mr. Gollub will be talking to parents and autographing his books. I hope you will be able to join us.

Fondly,

Pam Warman
Principal

Spelling Bee News

Claudia Landeen's Annual Spelling Bees took place for our fourth through sixth grade students on Thursday, October 23 and for our seventh and eighth grade students on Tuesday, October 28 in our Multiuse room.

Representing our fourth through sixth grades, we had twenty five students that competed. We would like to congratulate the top five students from this division that will advance to the District Bee. They are:

Ynna Lecitona, Amber Cooley, Jasmine Broekhoven, E'llece Logan and Leandra Evans. These students qualified to compete in Lincoln Unified's District Spelling Bee on November 5 at Mable Barron School at 3 pm.

We also had fourteen students who competed in a written test from our seventh and eighth grades. We would like to congratulate the top five spellers who will advance to the District Bee. They are; Nikki Drake, Cyrus Boone, Lehlua Mertens-Mingram, Aleiah Segura & John Oliveri. LUSD's Spelling Bee for this division will take place Wednesday, Nov. 12 at Colonial Heights in their Multiuse room at 3 pm.

Congratulations to these students and to the others who did their best in an effort to represent our school. We wish all of our top spellers the best of luck at their upcoming competition.
